

Membership Application/Renewal

Objectives:

The Irish Association of Social Workers was founded in 1971.

It is the national organisation of professional social workers in the Republic of Ireland.

The IASW is an active member of the International Federation of Social Workers, which represents professional social work associations from over 55 different countries with more than 350,000 social workers in all parts of the world. The IASW aims:

-  To improve the standards and quality of social work.
-  To provide support to social workers in the practise of their profession.
-  To represent the views of social workers on matters of social policy and practice at local, national and international level.
-  To develop a sense of pride amongst social workers about the value of their profession.
-  To be advocates for the interests of social work clients at national level.
-  To promote awareness of the contribution of social work to society.

I hereby agree to uphold the IASW Code of Ethics & Practice (www.iasw.ie) and would like to apply for membership:

Please note:

-  IASW Annual Membership runs from the 1st January to the 31st December each year.
-  There is a pro-rata rate for those who wish to join during the year; this is available to new members or those who have not been members for the previous 2 years. Please contact IASW on Ph. 01 6774838 for your pro-rata rate (Please note, due to the considerable discount already offered to them, students are not eligible for a pro-rata rate).
-  If renewal payment is not received by the 28th February that following year the members account will be automatically deactivated, thus foregoing all membership entitlements and thus losing their legal protection.
-  Members who renew their annual membership after the 28th February will incur a €25.00 administration charge.
